Scripture

Acts 8: 26-40

The angel of the Lord spoke to Philip,
"Get up and head south on the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza, the desert route."
So he got up and set out.
Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch,
a court official of the Candace,
that is, the queen of the Ethiopians,
in charge of her entire treasury,
who had come to Jerusalem to worship, and was returning home.
Seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah.
The Spirit said to Philip,
"Go and join up with that chariot."
Philip ran up and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet and said,
"Do you understand what you are reading?"
He replied,
"How can I, unless someone instructs me?"
So he invited Philip to get in and sit with him.
This was the Scripture passage he was reading:
Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter,

and as a lamb before its shearer is silent,
so he opened not his mouth.
In his humiliation justice was denied him.
Who will tell of his posterity?
For his life is taken from the earth.
Then the eunuch said to Philip in reply,
"I beg you, about whom is the prophet saying this?
About himself, or about someone else?"
Then Philip opened his mouth and, beginning with this Scripture passage, he proclaimed Jesus to him.
As they traveled along the road
they came to some water,
and the eunuch said, "Look, there is water.
What is to prevent my being baptized?"
Then he ordered the chariot to stop,
and Philip and the eunuch both went down into the water,
and he baptized him.
When they came out of the water,
the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away,
and the eunuch saw him no more,
but continued on his way rejoicing.
Philip came to Azotus, and went about proclaiming the good news to all the towns until he reached Caesarea.

Our Scripture Reflection

A eunuch was a male guardian at the Queen's court who had been castrated at birth. That he had been castrated made him an outcast in the eyes of the Jews. However, we read in Acts that he was reading from the Prophet Isaiah, how ironic! He was longing for faith but had no teacher, that is, until the missionary Philip came along. Philip took the time to love the man by witnessing to him about Jesus. The man's life was changed forever. I often wonder how many opportunities there are for us to do the same?

Give what you have: To someone, it may be better than you dare to think.

A Prayer from the Heart

Dear Jesus, May I never be afraid to share my love for You with others, especially those who may be hungering for You. Amen.
