Scripture

John 6: 60-69

Many of the disciples of Jesus who were listening said,
"This saying is hard; who can accept it?"

Since Jesus knew that his disciples were murmuring about this,
he said to them, "Does this shock you?

What if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before?
It is the Spirit that gives life, while the flesh is of no avail.

The words I have spoken to you are Spirit and life.

But there are some of you who do not believe."

Jesus knew from the beginning the ones who would not believe and the one who would betray him.

And he said, "For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted him by my Father."

As a result of this,

many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer walked with him.

Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?"

Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go?

You have the words of eternal life.

We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God."

Our Scripture Reflection

After having told the crowd the Truth about His identity and work, Jesus watched the would-be disciples walk away one by one. With a pathetic tone to His voice, Jesus asked Peter if he would leave Him as well. Peter's response was profound: "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life." 2000 years later, people continue to search for Truth in all the wrong places.

Food for your Journey

A missionary told how she was once describing the loving character of the Christians' God to a company of her Chinese sisters. As she went on in her holy enthusiasm, picturing God's real character as full of mercy to the sinful and the suffering, one of the Chinese women turned to her neighbor and said, "Haven't I often told you there ought to be a God like that?"

A Prayer from the Heart

Dear Jesus, Open my ears, my eyes and my heart to Your Truth. May I never stray from the good things that only You can give. Amen.
