

Daily Reflections

May 10, 2017

Scripture

John 12: 44-50

Jesus cried out and said,
"Whoever believes in me believes not only in me
but also in the one who sent me,
and whoever sees me sees the one who sent me.
I came into the world as light,
so that everyone who believes in me might not remain in darkness.
And if anyone hears my words and does not observe them,
I do not condemn him,
for I did not come to condemn the world but to save the world.
Whoever rejects me and does not accept my words has something to judge him: the word that I spoke,
it will condemn him on the last day,
because I did not speak on my own,
but the Father who sent me commanded me what to say and speak.
And I know that his commandment is eternal life.
So what I say, I say as the Father told me."

Our Scripture Reflection

So many people wonder what God is like? What does He think? What does He say? Well look no further. Jesus is the once and for all, definitive revelation of God. And what does Jesus say and think? The answer is in His Book.

Through His words, you will know Him.

Food for your Journey

An African proverb goes, "You only see what you know." In Hebrew, to "know God" means to become one with -- the most intimate language imaginable. Be still and KNOW.

A Prayer from the Heart

Dear Jesus, Thank You for revealing Yourself to me. Help me this day, Lord, to follow Your example in all things. Amen.