Scripture

Matthew 9: 1-8

After entering a boat, Jesus made the crossing, and came into his own town. And there people brought to him a paralytic lying on a stretcher.

When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Courage, child, your sins are forgiven."

At that, some of the scribes said to themselves, "This man is blaspheming."

Jesus knew what they were thinking, and said, "Why do you harbor evil thoughts?"

Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise and walk'?

But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"— he then said to the paralytic,

"Rise, pick up your stretcher, and go home."

He rose and went home.

When the crowds saw this they were struck with awe and glorified God who had given such authority to men.

Our Scripture Reflection

"Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise and walk' "?: Neither forgiveness nor healing were humanly possible. Both were divine prerogatives. Both revealed Jesus as The Son of God, that is, for those who had faith.

Food for your Journey

“Nearly all men can stand adversity,” said Abraham Lincoln, “but if you want to test a man’s character, give him power.”

A Prayer from the Heart

Dear Jesus, Fill me with Your Grace so that I can be an instrument of Your healing love to those who are hurting. Amen.
