Scripture

Matthew 19: 3-12

Some Pharisees approached Jesus, and tested him, saying, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any cause whatever?"

He said in reply, "Have you not read that from the beginning the Creator made them male and female and said,

For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh?

So they are no longer two, but one flesh.

Therefore, what God has joined together, man must not separate."

They said to him, "Then why did Moses command that the man give the woman a bill of divorce and dismiss her?"

He said to them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts

Moses allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it was not so.

I say to you, whoever divorces his wife

(unless the marriage is unlawful) and marries another commits adultery."

His disciples said to him,

"If that is the case of a man with his wife, it is better not to marry."

He answered, "Not all can accept this word, but only those to whom that is granted.

Some are incapable of marriage because they were born so; some, because they were made so by others;

some, because they have renounced marriage for the sake of the Kingdom of heaven. Whoever can accept this ought to accept it."

Our Scripture Reflection

In today's Gospel text, we read Jesus' teaching on marriage: One man, one woman for life....period.

Food for your Journey

Lots of research shows that love is more effective at bringing us together than keeping us together. You may have heard the saying, "Love is easy; relationships are hard." The truth is relationships are hard because love is easy. Strong feelings and sensations of any kind carry an illusion of certainty. With the exception of resentment, no emotional experience has more illusion of certainty than love.

A Prayer from the Heart

Dear Jesus, May all who are married and with children remain strong and faithful to their commitment to each other and to You. May they reveal Your love in our world. Amen.
