Scripture

Luke 4: 6-30

Jesus came to Nazareth, where he had grown up,
and went according to his custom
into the synagogue on the sabbath day.

He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah.
He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written:

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me,
because he has anointed me
to bring glad tidings to the poor.

He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives
and recovery of sight to the blind,
to let the oppressed go free,
and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.

Rolling up the scroll,
he handed it back to the attendant and sat down,
and the eyes of all in the synagogue looked intently at him.

He said to them,

"Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing."

And all spoke highly of him and were amazed at the gracious words that came from his mouth.

They also asked, "Is this not the son of Joseph?"

He said to them, "Surely you will quote me this proverb,
'Physician, cure yourself,' and say, 'Do here in your native place
the things that we heard were done in Capernaum.'"

And he said,
"Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place.
Indeed, I tell you,
there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah
when the sky was closed for three and a half years
and a severe famine spread over the entire land.
It was to none of these that Elijah was sent,
but only to a widow in Zarephath in the land of Sidon.
Again, there were many lepers in Israel
during the time of Elisha the prophet;
yet not one of them was cleansed, but only Naaman the Syrian."
When the people in the synagogue heard this,
they were all filled with fury.
They rose up, drove him out of the town,
and led him to the brow of the hill
on which their town had been built, to hurl him down headlong.
But he passed through the midst of them and went away.

Our Scripture Reflection

Today's Gospel has been known as Jesus' mission statement. Once Jesus proclaimed His mission as a fulfillment of the prophecy of Isaiah long before Him, He gave two practical examples of the nature of His mission. After He did, the mood of the hometown crowd shifted from amazement to fury. Why? Because Jesus told them using two Old Testament scriptures that He had been called to do His Father's will, not to please the interest of the hometown crowd. Jesus came to please His Father above all.

Food for your Journey

There is a story told of a shipwreck off the New England coast many years ago. A young member of the Coast Guard rescue crew said, "We can't go out — we'll never get back!"

The old captain replied, "We have to go out! We don't have to come back!"

A Prayer from the Heart

Dear Jesus, Help me to carry out my calling which is to be Your faithful disciple. May I witness to You with courage, compassion and love. Amen.
