

Daily Reflections

September 22, 2017

Scripture

Luke 8: 1-3

Jesus journeyed from one town and village to another, preaching and proclaiming the good news of the Kingdom of God. Accompanying him were the Twelve and some women who had been cured of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary, called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out, Joanna, the wife of Herod's steward Chuza, Susanna, and many others who provided for them out of their resources.

Our Scripture Reflection

Only Luke recounts for us that Jesus, in addition to the Apostles, had several women as companions who assisted Him out of their means. This scripture serves as a reminder that, we, the disciples of today are called to assist the mission of Jesus by sharing the gifts that have been entrusted to us.

Food for your Journey

God is far more interested in your character than he is your comfort, or your career, because you're not taking your career to heaven, but you are taking your character.

—Rick Warren.

A Prayer from the Heart

Dear Jesus, Give me a generous heart so that I may use my time and talent to spread Your Gospel to all people. Amen.