

Daily Reflections

April 12, 2018

Scripture

John 3: 31-36

The one who comes from above is above all.

The one who is of the earth is earthly and speaks of earthly things.

But the one who comes from heaven is above all.

He testifies to what he has seen and heard,

but no one accepts his testimony.

Whoever does accept his testimony certifies that God is trustworthy.

For the one whom God sent speaks the words of God.

He does not ration his gift of the Spirit.

The Father loves the Son and has given everything over to him.

Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life,

but whoever disobeys the Son will not see life,

but the wrath of God remains upon him.

Our Scripture Reflection

“The One who comes from above is above all”.....Have you ever wondered who is in charge in this life? Have you ever asked yourself...“What’s the truth????” Climate change theorists, scientists of all species and stripes, politicians and even palm readers make a claim on the truth. But as Jesus tells us in today’s Gospel text, there is only One Who is from above and Who is above all earthly vendors and dispensers of the truth. He is Truth, and the Way and the Life. We never have to be confused or in despair. The Truth is among us, He is with us and all we have to do is walk with Him each day.

Food for your Journey

At 20, you want to be the master of your fate and the captain of your soul. At 50, you're inclined to settle for being the master of your weight and the captain of your bowling team.

A Prayer from the Heart

Precious Lord, How wonderful it is to know You and to love You. Through the power of the Holy Spirit You will remain with me until the end of time. Teach me Your way and help me to live it. In doing so may I reveal Your light to this darkened world. Amen