

Daily Reflections

April 27, 2018

Scripture

John 14: 1-6

Jesus said to his disciples:

“Do not let your hearts be troubled.

You have faith in God; have faith also in me.

In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places.

If there were not,

would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?

And if I go and prepare a place for you,

I will come back again and take you to myself,

so that where I am you also may be.

Where I am going you know the way.”

Thomas said to him,

“Master, we do not know where you are going;

how can we know the way?”

Jesus said to him, “I am the way and the truth and the life.

No one comes to the Father except through me.”

Our Scripture Reflection

There are times in the Gospels when the disciples are pictured as men who misunderstand Our Lord. In today’s Gospel passage Thomas wants a road map of sorts to help show him where Jesus is going to prepare a place for them. Jesus will give none. Why? He is the Way. To know His Way means to keep your eyes focused on Him, exclusively.

Food for your Journey

There is one single fact which we may oppose to all the wit and argument of being an atheist or agnostic, namely that no man ever repented of being a Christian on his deathbed.

--Hannah More

A Prayer from the Heart

Dear Lord, Your light is the only light I need,

as I travel through life's mystery .

Your word the only voice I hear,

that still small voice that leads me to the place where I should be.

Your Presence is the only company I need,

as I walk this narrow road.

Your fellowship is the warmth I crave,

to help me on my way. Amen