

Daily Reflections

June 5, 2018

Scripture

2 Peter 3: 12-18

Beloved:

Wait for and hasten the coming of the day of God,
because of which the heavens will be dissolved in flames
and the elements melted by fire.

But according to his promise
we await new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells.

Therefore, beloved, since you await these things,
be eager to be found without spot or blemish before him, at peace.
And consider the patience of our Lord as salvation.

Therefore, beloved, since you are forewarned, be on your guard not to be led into the error of the unprincipled and to fall from your own stability.

But grow in grace
and in the knowledge of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ.
To him be glory now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

Our Scripture Reflection

When one's house is neat and tidy, there will be no embarrassment when unexpected company suddenly arrives. And so it is with the life of faith, says Peter. We know Our Lord will return at the end of time. When? We don't know because He never told us. However, our work is to live the faith to the fullest until which time He does return. No worries, no concerns if we are prepared.

Food for your Journey

God, who foresaw your tribulation, has specially armed you to go through it, not without pain but without stain.

--C.S. Lewis in Letters of C.S. Lewis, cited in Christianity Today, March 1, 1999, 64.

A Prayer from the Heart

Holy Father, Thank You for the gift of Your grace. Please help me move beyond the hurdles that trip me up and give me the strength and wisdom to look up and see the hope I run toward in Christ. In His Name, Amen.