Scripture

Luke 9:46-51

An argument arose among the disciples about which of them was the greatest. Jesus realized the intention of their hearts and took a child and placed it by his side and said to them, "Whoever receives this child in my name receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me. For the one who is least among all of you is the one who is the greatest." Then John said in reply, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name and we tried to prevent him because he does not follow in our company." Jesus said to him, "Do not prevent him, for whoever is not against you is for you."

Our Scripture Reflection

There is a hard lesson that Jesus' disciples would have to learn, and it didn't come easily: There are no prizes, trophies, certificates, degrees, ranks or privileges given to true disciples. There is a requirement for the true disciple: Love for Jesus shown in a humble life.

Food for your Journey

Popularized by the 2007 film of that name starring Morgan Freeman and Jack Nicholson, the phrase "bucket list" refers to a list of things people yearn to do or see or accomplish before they die. Marvel at the Taj Mahal, skydive, hike up to Machu Picchu, shake the hand of the president, cook the perfect soufflé, watch a game at every Major League ballpark -- the lists are as varied as the people who assemble them.
The goal is to accumulate memorable experiences, as one would fill a bucket with strawberries at the pick-your-own berry farm. What would a Christian bucket list look like? Well, let's September 30, 2019

The goal is to accumulate memorable experiences, as one would fill a bucket with strawberries at the pick-your-own berry farm. What would a Christian bucket list look like? Well, let's start with the bucket. Would it be turned upright, to accumulate the most desirable experiences possible? Or would it be turned upside down, to pour out goodness upon the world?

A deeply Christian bucket list focuses on making others happy.

A Prayer from the Heart

Dear Jesus, To be Your disciple, I am not required to be the brightest, strongest, most handsome or beautiful, or even the wealthiest....All You expect of me is to have a heart full of love for You and Your people, especially the least in Your Kingdom. Please strip me of false pride, arrogance, jealousy or envy and make me humble and loving towards all. Amen with the bucket. Would it be turned upright, to accumulate the most desirable experiences possible? Or would it be turned upside down, to pour out goodness upon the world?
