Scripture

Mark 1:7-11

And he preached, saying: There cometh after me one mightier than I, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and loose.

I have baptized you with water; but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost.

And it came to pass, in those days, Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan.

And forthwith coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit as a dove descending, and remaining on him.

And there came a voice from heaven: Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased.

Our Scripture Reflection

Mark has a very brief account of John's Baptism of Jesus when compared to Matthew and Luke. He wants to highlight one huge point. It is at His Baptism that Jesus is revealed to the world as God's beloved Son. In our Baptism ritual those who are being Baptized are acknowledged and celebrated as God's sons and daughter IN JESUS CHRIST. May all the Baptized live as such.

Food for your Journey

I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel.

A Prayer from the Heart

Heavenly Father, Help me to live the commitments that were made at my Baptism. May I strive with the help of Your Grace to live as Your cherished and chosen son/daughter. Amen
