

Daily Reflections

January 24, 2021

Scripture

Mark 1:14-20

And after that John was delivered up, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God,

And saying: The time is accomplished, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent, and believe the gospel.

And passing by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother, casting nets into the sea (for they were fishermen).

And Jesus said to them: Come after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

And immediately leaving their nets, they followed him.

And going on from thence a little farther, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were mending their nets in the ship:

And forthwith he called them. And leaving their father Zebedee in the ship with his hired men, they followed him.

Our Scripture Reflection

Today's Gospel text features the calling of the first Apostles. Please note that when they are called, they leave everything and everyone with IMMEDIACY. There is no hesitation or looking back. What an act of surrender.

Food for your Journey

When one door of happiness closes, another opens; but often we look so long at the closed door that we do not see the one which has been opened.

A Prayer from the Heart

Dear Lord, I pray to You for the Grace to turn my life over to You completely. In doing so may I learn to trust You in all things. Amen