Scripture

Luke 9:28-36

Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up a mountain to pray.

While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white.

And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem.

Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him.

As they were about to part from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here;

let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

But he did not know what he was saying.

While he was still speaking,
a cloud came and cast a shadow over them,
and they became frightened when they entered the cloud.
Then from the cloud came a voice that said,
"This is my chosen Son; listen to him."
After the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone.
They fell silent and did not at that time
tell anyone what they had seen.

Our Scripture Reflection

The story of the Transfiguration is one of hope. The three disciples whom Jesus took with Him to the mountain top had no idea of the magnitude of what was revealed to them. They received a privileged glimpse of what would happen to Jesus on the other side of Calvary after His resurrection. Little did they know at that time that what would happen to Jesus would be their destiny as well one day.

Prayer from the Heart

Dear Jesus, please give me the strength and courage that I need to follow You faithfully in this life. When my earthly journey is complete, may I enjoy the beauty of Paradise with You, forever. Amen.
