

Lenten

Reflections

The Divine Intervention

March 25, 2017

Scripture

Luke 1: 26-38

The angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town of Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgin's name was Mary.

And coming to her, he said,

"Hail, full of grace! The Lord is with you."

But she was greatly troubled at what was said and pondered what sort of greeting this might be.

Then the angel said to her,

"Do not be afraid, Mary,

for you have found favor with God.

Behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you shall name him Jesus.

He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give him the throne of David his father, and he will rule over the house of Jacob forever, and of his Kingdom there will be no end."

But Mary said to the angel,

"How can this be,
since I have no relations with a man?"
And the angel said to her in reply,
"The Holy Spirit will come upon you,
and the power of the Most High will overshadow you.
Therefore the child to be born
will be called holy, the Son of God.
And behold, Elizabeth, your relative,
has also conceived a son in her old age,
and this is the sixth month for her who was called barren;
for nothing will be impossible for God."
Mary said, "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord.
May it be done to me according to your word."
Then the angel departed from her.

Our Scripture Reflection

Well, it is nine months until Christmas as we are reminded by today's Feast of the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. And even though we are in the midst of the season of repentance, Lent, today's Feast provides us with plenty to pray about with regard to the spiritual life. Mary surrendered her life completely to God when called to do so by God's messenger, the Angel Gabriel. Have you surrendered your life to God? What's holding you back?

Food for your Journey

The loss of joy does not make the world better - and, conversely, refusing joy for the sake of suffering does not help those who suffer. The contrary is true. The world needs people who discover the good, who rejoice in it and thereby derive the courage and impetus to do good.

We have a new need for that primordial trust which ultimately faith can give. That the world is basically good, that God is there and is good. That it is good to live and be a human being. This results, then, in the courage to rejoice, which in turn becomes commitment to making sure that other people, too, can rejoice and receive good news.

-Joseph Cardinal Ratzinger, Salt of the Earth (Ft. Collins, Colo.: Ignatius

A Prayer from the Heart

Dear Jesus, I love You and adore You. Please give me the Grace to turn my life over to You completely this day. Amen.