

Daily Reflections

December 29, 2016

Scripture

Luke 2:22-35

When the days were completed for their purification according to the law of Moses, the parents of Jesus took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, just as it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that opens the womb shall be consecrated to the Lord, and to offer the sacrifice of a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons, in accordance with the dictate in the law of the Lord. Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, awaiting the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Christ of the Lord.

He came in the Spirit into the temple;
and when the parents brought in the child Jesus
to perform the custom of the law in regard to him,
he took him into his arms and blessed God, saying
"Lord, now let your servant go in peace;
your word has been fulfilled:
my own eyes have seen the salvation
which you prepared in the sight of every people,
a light to reveal you to the nations
and the glory of your people Israel."

The child's father and mother were amazed at what was said about him;
and Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother,
"Behold, this child is destined for the fall and rise of many in Israel,
and to be a sign that will be contradicted (and you yourself a sword will pierce)
so that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

Our Scripture Reflection

Embedded in the infancy accounts of Jesus are clues about what lies ahead for Him. In today's text, the ever loyal and faithful prophet Simeon speaks some rather ominous words about Baby Jesus. The cute, adorable Baby will one day be the rise and fall of many. How so? As an adult, He will speak words that call people to make a decision for or against His Kingdom. Some will accept them and rise, some will reject them and face eternal condemnation. What a powerful sign this Baby is.

Food for your Journey

Without the Way, there is no going; without the Truth, there is no knowing;
without the Life, there is no living. — Thomas á Kempis.

Prayer from the Heart

Dear Jesus, please give me the Grace I need to completely surrender to You and Your way in the coming year. Amen.