

Daily Reflections

September 29, 2016

Scripture

John 1:47-51

Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him and said of him,
"Here is a true child of Israel.

There is no duplicity in him."

Nathanael said to him, "How do you know me?"

Jesus answered and said to him,

"Before Philip called you, I saw you under the fig tree."

Nathanael answered him,

"Rabbi, you are the Son of God; you are the King of Israel."

Jesus answered and said to him,

"Do you believe

because I told you that I saw you under the fig tree?

You will see greater things than this."

And he said to him, "Amen, amen, I say to you,

you will see heaven opened and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

Our Scripture Reflection

Nathanael upon encountering Jesus asks Him, "How do You know me?" One of the fascinating things about being called by Jesus to be His disciples is that He truly knows us, everything about us, past, present and future. And to think He still wants us. If only we could see the potential that Jesus sees. There are no excuses. We must get on the road.

Food for your Journey

In calling disciples, Jesus acts relationally, rather than legalistically. His first instruction is not "Here is how you must live." His first words are, "Follow me."

Prayer from the Heart

Dear Jesus, Although I am not worthy to be Your disciple, nevertheless, You love me and trust me enough to call me to do Your good work. Keep me humble, faithful, and true to You. Amen.

The Divine Intervention's mission is carried out solely through the generous contributions of people like you. Please prayerfully consider donating to our ministry by visiting www.thedivineintervention.org or via our mailing address, P.O. Box 433, Huntington, W.V. 25709. Your donation is tax deductible.