Donors' generosity allows The Divine Intervention to change lives

It has been a very busy year at The Divine Intervention. The ministry has provided:

- Spiritual guidance for 26 people on a regular basis and eight people on a rotating basis
- Weekly Bible study at St. Mary's for both men and women
- Weekly reflections on the Gospel readings to an email list of over 200 people
- Hospital and hospice visitation as needed
- Two interventions, one of which was successful and resulted in the institutionalization of an alcoholic
- Ongoing phone calls and visits to the homebound
- A weekly Al-Anon meeting for family members and friends of people suffering from addictions

Thanks to generosity from donors, these services – and more – have been provided to the public at absolutely no cost. If you or a loved one is in need of the ministry's services, please contact The Divine Intervention at (800) 743-9412.

“ May your heart fall in love with the Lord and motivate you to live His way each and every day. ”

Thanksgiving food drive scheduled for mid-November

Plan to join The Divine Intervention on Saturday, Nov. 15 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Tascali's, 6007 Rt. 60, Barboursville, WV, 25504, for a Thanksgiving food drive. Donations collected will be transported to the Eastern Cabell County Humanities Organization (ECCHO) for distribution to families in need this holiday season.
